Reservations

If an item is in circulation, a reservation may be placed to hold it upon return. The item will be held for one week after patron is notified.

Overdues

The sponsor is responsible to turn all materials in on time. Notices are issued seven days after the due date. A week after the notice, a second notice will state that if the obligation is not remedied that a third notice will be sent to the patrons Supervisor/Commanding Officer. The Library will attempt to reach the patron by phone or email beforehand. If the items are still not returned, additional steps will be taken.

Fines

The Air Force Libraries cannot charge late fees (IAW AFI 34-150). The Tinker Library follows the AF guidelines in this matter. The patron must replace lost or damaged materials. The item has to be replaced with a NEW item of the same title. We will not accept used replacements. Please ask the staff for recommendations. The Tinker Library cannot accept money.

Registration

New patrons will complete a registration sheet with information on all authorized users. Please note: Only the sponsor's or spouse's signatures are authorized to accept the responsibility for checkouts.
